EVALUATION see below PLACE OBTAINED 25X1/ DATE OF CONTENT 26 August to 10 September 1953 DATE OBTAINED 25X1C DATE PREPARED 12 October 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS. 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1C Surved and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration. So far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C Source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were tion of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fun) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area head transferred to Finstervalde, about 50 railroad station that Captain Zas (fun) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area head transferred to Finstervalde, about 50 railroad station that Captain Zas (fun) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area head transferred to Finstervalde, about 50 railroad station that Captain Zas (fun) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area head transferred to Finstervalde, about 50 railroad station that Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 4. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown, It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition.		Y East Germany REPORT NO.
EVALUATION see below PLACE OBTAINED 25X1/ DATE OF CONTENT 26 August to 10 September 1953 DATE OBTAINED 25X1/C DATE PREPARED 12 October 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS. 25X1X 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1C 25X1X	TOPIC
DATE OBTAINED 25X1C DATE PREPARED 12 October 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1X 25X1X 1. Between 26 August and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration. So far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C 2	EVALUAT
DATE OBTAINED 25X1C DATE PREPARED 12 October 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1X 25X1X 1. Between 26 August and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration. So far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C 25X1C Source learned from two civilians, wearing SBD badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fau) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde, About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. Con 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. X1A Dement. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Optain Zes had perviously been recorred as the august of the search and the previously been recorred as the august of the previously been recorred as the august of the search and the previously been recorred as the august of the previously been recorred as		CONTROL Of Assessed to 20 C to 2
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS	DATE OF	1051/40
25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 1. Between 26 August and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration, 50 far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C 2. Source learned from two civilians, wearing SUD badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been dacided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a realizedamen employed at Falkensee realizond station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finstervalde, About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 4. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown, it was rumored that he buildings were left in very poor condition. ATA ATA Improve the content of the falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown, it was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. ATA ATA Improve the falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had perviously been reported as the auditor of the ground to the determined. Captain Zas had perviously been reported as the auditor of the ground the determined. Captain Zas had perviously been reported as the auditor of the ground the determined.	REFEREN
25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1C 25X1C 26 27 28 28 28 28 28 28 28 29 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20		The second secon
25X1X 25X1X 2. Between 26 August and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration. So far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C 25X1C 3. Source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 4. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1952. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a survey of a survey and the auditor of a survey an 25X1X 1. Between 26 August and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration. So far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C 2. Source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been ducided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 3. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. 3. On 10 September, the guartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. 3. On 10 September, the countering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still the buildings were left in very poor condition. 3. On 10 September, the countering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. 3. On 10 September, the countering buildings at Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finstervalde, between 7 and 12 August previously been reported as the auditor of the area can not be determined. C
25X1X 1. Between 26 August and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration. So far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C 2. Source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 2. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. 2. Demment. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a remote with the determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a remote with the state.
25X1X 1. Between 26 August and 3 September 1953, the vacated Falkensee restricted area continued to be guarded by civilians from the municipal administration. So far as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C 2. Source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 3. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. XIA 20 Degment. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a graph.
as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 4. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. X1A Comment. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the proviously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state	COL IN NOVA AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AN
as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 4. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. X1A Comment. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the proviously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners. 25X1C source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. 3. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. 4. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. X1A Comment. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the proviously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state of the state of the previously been reported as the auditor of a guardin with the state of the state
Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a supply unit white.	٤.	as is known no official orders have been given to release houses to their owners
	3.	source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde, About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is universe.
	3 . X1A	source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. Danwent. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a guardle with retaining the content of the second to the content of the second to the determined.
	, . , .	source learned from two civilians, wearing SED badges, who were posted at the entrance to Falkensee restricted area, that the further utilization of the area had not yet been decided upon and that the owners of the houses would possibly soon receive permission to inspect their properties. On 7 September, the Falkensee restricted area was still guarded by civilians and it was prohibited for civilian population to enter the area. Source learned from a railroadman employed at Falkensee railroad station that Captain Zas (fnu) and also the headquarters which previously was stationed in the restricted area had transferred to Finsterwalde. About 50 railroad cars which had been requested by Captain Zas had been utilized in the transfer. On 10 September, the quartering buildings at Falkensee restricted area were still unoccupied. The future utilization of this area is unknown. It was rumored that the buildings were left in very poor condition. Danwent. The Falkensee restricted area has been unoccupied since the Ground Attack Corps Headquarters transferred to Finsterwalde, between 7 and 12 August 1953. The further utilization of the area can not be determined. Captain Zas had previously been reported as the auditor of a guardle with retaining the content of the second to the content of the second to the determined.

CLASSIFICATION SECRET